

Carers and Whole family Assessment “Making it Real for Young Carers”

Date: Thursday 5 September 2013

Times: Registration 9:30 am for 10:00am – 3:45pm close

Location: Coin Street Neighbourhood Centre
108 Stamford Street
South Bank
London SE1 9NH

See Coin Street Neighbourhood Centre website for a map of the venue.

- Aim of the event: A major free carers leads networking event has been organised in association with the Think Local Act Personal Partnership (TLAP) and the Carers Trust. This is an opportunity to consider how carers’ rights will be strengthened by the Care and Support Bill and how new approaches to whole family assessment will be required. Participants will also be able to hear about anticipated new social care legislation from leading expert Professor Luke Clements

The day will be an interactive event looking at whole family assessments and improving support for young carers. During part of the day, TLAP will launch an updated guide on making personalisation real for young carers and participants will receive a free copy.

Key Note Speakers:

Professor Luke Clements , Independent legal expert

Bernadette Simpson, Making It Real for Young Carers

Speaker from the Carers Trust, (tbc.)

Dame Philippa Russell, Chair Standing Commission on Carers

And expert input from:

- Simon Morrison, Department of Education
- Speakers from Local Young Carers Services
- Think Local Act Personal Partnership

Workshops will include opportunities to network and there will be lots of information about latest thinking and opportunities to share good practice. There is the opportunity to bring a colleague from Health, Children’s Service or your young carers service.
