

One in Five

Social care touches the lives of millions - 20% of adult population and 91% of those people are satisfied with the service they get.