

Right to Work Checks

Are you aware of the changes to Right to Work checks that are happening as a result of BREXIT?

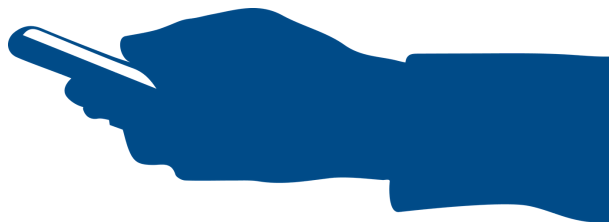

The UK immigration system is going through the biggest overhaul ever and there are many changes which affect how employers fulfil their statutory obligation to check that a new recruit has the Right to Work in the UK.

Join us for our FREE Online information sessions for employers and organisations, in which we will discuss all these changes. (see back of flyer for list of sessions with date, time and urls)
